

Telephone
1 - 800 - 667 - 0816

DELIVERY SITES:
Toronto

Scan QR to view the full listing of ONWA locations
onwa.ca/contact-us

Email: onwa@onwa.ca
Hours of Operation: Monday - Friday, 9am - 5pm

Social Media:

www.onwa.ca

 @ONWA7  @_ONWA_
 @onwa_official

Youth In Transition

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Youth In Transition - Human Trafficking

provides support to youth involved with or transitioning out of human trafficking, justice systems, police involvement, probation and parole systems.

Youth In Transition - Human Trafficking supports youth that are at risk, currently involved in or are survivors of human trafficking and sex trades.

- Intensive case management
- Referrals and connections to supports and resources
- Education and resource supports
- Employment services & training
- Support specialized in Human Trafficking focusing on exiting strategies and continuous supports
- Street outreach focused on capacity building, empowerment, and culturally specific healing
- Services based in a harm reduction model that meets people where they are at in their journey and recognizes that all people walk their own paths
- Multi sector approach to care, services, referrals, advocacy and system navigation
- Access to cultural programming, teachings, and healing, Elders and Traditional Healers
- Self Esteem, Cultural Identity and Life skills program
- Assist with addictions and/or mental health issues and recovery support

ONWA VISION:

At the Ontario Native Women's Association (ONWA), we celebrate and honour the safety and healing of Indigenous women and girls as they take up their leadership roles in the family, community and internationally for generations to come.

ONWA STRATEGIC ISSUES MODEL:

