Youth Education Program

The Youth Education Support Workers (YESW) will guide youth in creating community connections, teach essential life skills, incorporate traditional knowledge, provide peer based mental health support, and various forms of advocacy.

- Access to Traditional supports and Ceremony
- Education resources
- Life skills programming
- Health, mental health, and addiction navigation services
- Advocacy and referrals
- Access to educational workshops and online classes
- Peer mentorship

Youth Education Program assists Indigenous youth (ages 12-24) with support and navigation through their learning and meets them where they are at in their level of learning.

ONWA VISION:

At the Ontario Native Women's Association (ONWA), we celebrate and honour the safety and healing of Indigenous women and girls as they take up their leadership roles in the family, community and internationally for generations to come.
